The Georgian Museum, 105 E Wheeling St, Lancaster, OH 43130

Bring your best beau, your best friend or a grandchild to a Valentine Tea at the Georgian Museum.

A three-course menu of savories and sweets will be served in the gorgeous mansion built for Samuel and Sarah Maccracken in 1832. The tea begins at 3 p.m., when the first course is served.

The theme is “Foundations of Beauty: Vintage Undergarments,” drawn from the Fairfield County Heritage Association’s clothing collection.

Tickets are $35 per person and must be purchased in advance.

Call 740-654-9923 to order or go online at www.fairfieldheritage.org. If bad weather forces a cancellation, the tea will be held Feb. 18. Same time. Same place.

The tea is a winter fundraiser for the Fairfield County Heritage Association, which owns the Georgian Museum as well as the Sherman House Museum. FCHA also champions preservation and revitalization; and provides historical programming.
